Presbyterian Church Notes.

Last Sunday was a beautiful spring day. We have heard that in the cities the automobile takes people away from church, but this evidently does not hold true in the small town, for all the families in our church owning autos, were represented at the morning service. In the evening the house was full to hear the lecture on "Africa." The picture machine was operated without a hitch by Mr. Hanson Murray, and the pictures gave a good idea of the scenery, people and mission work in the dark continent.

The Christian Endeavor Society is becoming quite a financial factor in the church work. Within the last month the society has given $10.00 to charitable work in town; $10.00 to Foreign Missions; $10.00 to Home Missions and last Sunday voted $10.00 to help buy a carpet for the cradle roll in the Sunday school. Miss Virginia Netherland gave a piano solo last Sunday night that was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Bunker is the leader for next Sunday night. The subject, "Mission Work at Home and Abroad." Matt. 10:7-11.

Mr. Robert Montgomery's class in Sunday school continues to grow, and finds Old Testament History very interesting under the leadership of this veteran teacher, who has been for so many years a faithful leader in Sunday school work.

The usual services on next Sunday morning. On Sunday night there will be a union service at the Methodist church.

Prayer meeting Thursday night at 7:30. Choir practice at 8:15, immediately after prayer meeting at the church.

The ladies quartette sang a beautiful anthem last Sunday morning.

A cordial welcome to all. Call on the pastor for any service he can render you.

Pastor.

Rural Carriers to Meet.

The rural carriers of the Fourth congressional district, of Missouri, will hold a meeting at the federal building in St. Joseph, Saturday, Feb. 22, the meeting being called to order at 10:30 o'clock in the morning with an address by George N. Dragoon, of Tarkio, Mo., president of the association. Among our local carriers who are on the program are:

Address, "Some Achievements of Our National Association," J. J. Loken, Oregon.

Address, "The Motorcycle as a Rural Carrier's Vehicle," Hugh Harsha, Oregon.

Experience meeting: "My Most Exciting Experience," R. A. Bonewitz, Savannah; "My Most Embarrassing Experience," C. A. Noe, Helena; "My Most Disappointing Experience," Charles De Long, Ravenwood; "My Most Gratifying Experience," A. D. Fritsch, Hopkins.

General experiences. Each carrier present will be expected to tell of some experience he has had while in the service.

All carriers in the district are invited to attend the convention for what good they can receive from the meeting.

Ladies!

I now have on hand the "Royal Society" and "Artamo" Package Goods, also the Royal Society Floss in all colors and qualities. These goods recommend themselves both as to quality and price. I also carry Crochet Cottons, Needles, Fancy Braids and other accessories necessary for art needleworkers. Stamping and Stenciling done at reasonable prices.

Yours for quality,
Mrs. Minnie H. Moore

Death of J. M. Kenyon.

The news reaches us of the death of J. M. Kenyon, which occurred at his home in Los Angeles, California, on Wednesday of last week, February 12, 1913. The body being brought to Maitland, where funeral services were held Wednesday of this week, 19th instant, being buried with Masonic honors.

Mr. Kenyon was the son of Thomas Kenyon, who located on the land on which Fillmore is now located, in 1838, where the deceased was born April 11, 1840. At the death of his father, he took charge of the home farm, although but 17 years of age. In 1862 he went to Colorado and engaged in freighting and mining, and in 1869-9 was in the grocery business at Wardsburg, Colorado. He disposed of this business and returned to Andrew county.

Mr. Kenyon married Miss Emily Jackson, November 11, 1869, and she died at Kansas City, May 10, 1902, and his son, Clyde, died in St. Louis, October 10, 1905.

After his return from Colorado, Mr. Kenyon engaged in the breeding of Short-Horn cattle until 1877, when he closed out his entire herd at St. Joseph. In 1877-78 he was in Deadwood, South Dakota, and in 1881 he located at Maitland, embarking in the dry goods business, but in a short time sold his business and in 1881 he purchased the Paschal & Spencer hardware store and continued this business. Thus he became one of Maitland's earliest business men. The old dry goods firm was known as Kenyon & Coberly and about 1895 he sold his hardware business to Noel & McNaull and in 1906 he went west, where he had made his home.

On October 14, 1891, the Graham Masonic lodge was moved to Maitland, and its name changed to Maitland lodge, No. 112, and Mr. Kenyon was chosen as the first W. M., on its becoming known as Maitland lodge, and is the second of the roll of original officers to pass away. J. D. Goodpasture was the Senior Warden at the time, and he died January 27, 1901. The surviving officers are: C. E. Boring, J. E. Kellogg, H. W. Gilbert, David Kennedy, Al Boring and W. S. Schoeder.

Mr. Kenyon is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. E. A. Williams.

Kunkel and wife, of near this city, and is well and favorably remembered by many relatives and friends in Oregon and vicinity.

Grow Fancy Apples

and other fruits. Cut out the "entire" and get the price. You can do it by keeping your orchard clean, pruning a little every year in June and spraying regularly with Pyrox.

Our ten year old Gano orchard, sprayed twice with Pyrox last season, brought a little over one hundred dollars per acre, and the total cost of material and labor was only five per cent of this amount. Money spent for good spraying material and properly applied is the best investment a fruit grower can make.

Systematic spraying will make us dollars where we have here-to-fore made dimes. Rig up a spray pump and lay in a few kegs of Pyrox; give your orchard a "square deal" and you will be surprised at its showing financially.

Pyrox fills the barrel with the kind that used to go on top. Let me have your order for Pyrox—the one best spray. I have the agency for Holt county.
